THE IOWA COLLECTOR

Published by the Iowa Numismatic Ass'n.

COIN SHOWS BUNCHED IN A FEW MONTHS OF YEAR

A recent review of the dates of Iowa coin club shows, reveals that many are bunched during a couple months in the fall, while there is another "bunch" in the spring.

Don Watts of Clarion drew up the list, basing it on available information. Mr. Watts is aware that clubs often change dates for various reasons, and is sure that he has missed some shows because of lack of publicity in the Iowa Collector or by other means in this area of the state.

Iowa's coin show calendar for 1982 looked something like this:

January: No shows.

February: Ames (Forest City has moved into February for 1983).

March: Waterloo, Forest City, Cedar Rapids.

April: Mason City, Muscatine, Des Moines.

May: Clinton.

June: No shows.

July: No shows.

August: Okoboji.

September: Storm Lake, Decorah (INA usually in this month).

October: Webster City, Fort Dodge, Britt, Clarion, INA, Independence, Marshalltown, Burlington, Grinnell, Fort Madison, Tri-Cities, Rockford.

November: Davenport, Mount Pleasant, Keokuk, Sioux City.

December: No shows.

As you can see, there are four months with no shows, three months with just one show, which leaves the other 23 shows being held in the following five months: March, April, September, October and November.

It should also be noted that large shows, such as the ANA convention, the Central States Show and INA show have a strong effect on the scheduling of the rest of the shows. It will also be noted that we have not listed club shows for Cedar Falls, Iowa City, Oskaloosa, Ottumwa, Red Oak and Dubuque. Although it is likely most of these cities had shows, we are not sure of the month.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

I wish to take this opportunity to wish you all a happy and numismatically prosperous 1983.

As I look ahead into the new year, I wish that at your next regular Coin Club meeting you would discuss and suggest to your Area Director, new ways you would like to improve the INA. We need to sign up new members to inject new ideas and keep the clubs growing.

Thanks for the GREAT new board of directors you elected. I am sure they will do much to promote all aspects of the hobby.

The INA Show Cases are in storage in Cedar Rapids and any INA club wishing to use them, please contact Bob Douglas.

Looking back at last year, I wish to thank the Des Moines Coin Club for hosting the 1982 State Convention. Well done!

I am glad Cedar Rapids had the opportunity to host CSNS Convention. It was a great chance to numismatically enrich Cedar Rapids and the whole state of Iowa.

For those of us who are hearty souls and remain in Iowa for the long cold months of winter, we have one ray of hope. As spring approaches, so do many better shows.

Cedar Rapids Coin Club will host the 1983 State Convention with the now famous Prime Rib banquet.

Hope to see all my friends soon.

Jim

The Tri-Cities show at Moline and the big show at Rockford, Illinois, were included in our calendar because they had several articles in the Iowa Collector and evidently have a following from this state.

Most shows are judged successful when they have good exhibits, good dealers and good crowds. All clubs are urged to schedule their shows carefully, and to immediately release the chosen date to the Iowa Numismatist as well as to the other trade papers. Dealers and exhibitors need to be contacted early as possible if they are to arrange their own schedules.

Hopefully with choice exhibits, the best dealers, and publicity planned and executed early, all clubs will have their best shows ever.

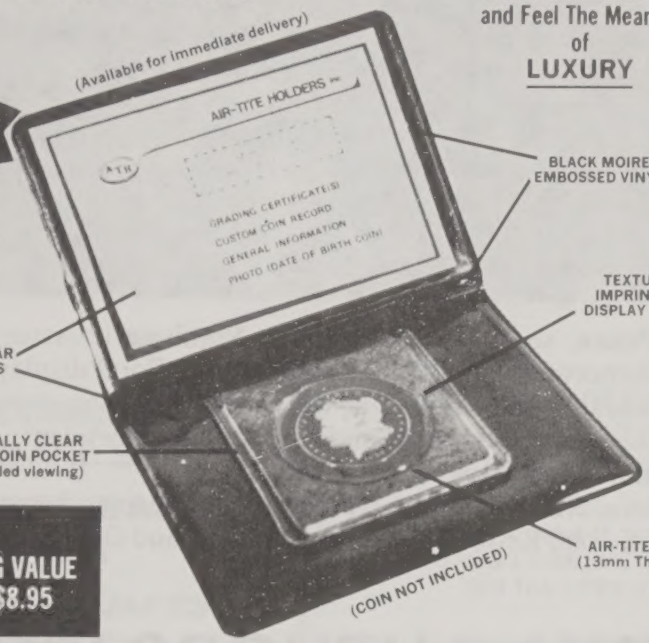

There is no charge for listing club sponsored shows in the INA bulletin. We urge that you include Clarion in the list of places you mail your first posters and your first news release. Write your own news story for us -- or, just send us your poster and we will write up a story for you in the Iowa Collector.

JoAnn Peters, secretary of the Iowa Numismatic Association for ten years, was honored at the 1982 fall show with a floral display in a vase. On her retirement, the board thought this would be more appropriate than a plaque. The presentation was made by the new president, Jim Hamling, with husband, Harry, looking on.

Mrs. Peters, Kanawha, had served under five presidents: Vince Davis, Gene Morris, John Kelso, her husband, Harry, and Don Mark.

IOWA AUTHORS ISSUE 2ND BOOK IN YEAR

For the second time in one year, Iowa authors had noteworthy books published in the paper money field. First to appear was "Iowa Obsolete Notes and Scrip" by Dean G. Oakes, which was issued during the national show at Memphis in June of 1982.

Second, and four pounds heavier was the mammoth volume, "Standard Catalog of National Bank Notes" by John Hickman and Dean Oakes, published by Krause Publications, Iola, Wisconsin.

"Such adjectives as landmark, milestone, revolutionary, and official have often been used in promoting numismatic studies," Publisher Clifford Mishler, stated in his advertising circular promoting the new book, and went on to say: "In a lot of cases, they're overused or do not apply to the work at hand.

"But the massive 1216 page STANDARD CATALOG OF NATIONAL BANK NOTES can easily be described with these words and more. This volume documents the rarities and provides valuation estimates for every one of the potentially collectible National Bank Note issues circulated by over 10,000 note-issuing banks from 1863 to 1933."

The brochure goes on to point out that the data was compiled after 17 years of research of 100,749 notes examined and recorded by Hickman. Referred to as "Mr. National Bank Note," Hickman very likely spent many long night hours on this, his pet project. Mr. Oakes undoubtedly also devoted many hours to the project, although we don't know him quite well enough to hazard a guess as to his favorite time of the day for research and study.

Hickman and Oakes have established rarities and values for all National Bank Notes ever issued. Louis Van Belkum's original research in the federal archives provided the groundwork for the entire undertaking. Detailed statistical information is also included on the printing configurations of sheets and the serial numbers of all notes released.

Dean and John state that as notes continue to surface (in addition to the 100,000 already tabulated), rarity figures will continue to change.

Price of the first edition is $75.00.

From the Secretary's Desk

The Des Moines Coin Club hosted the Iowa Numismatic Association State Show at Adventureland Inn, and, as usual, for me it was like "old home week". It always seems like a family reunion when I go to an Iowa State Show.

As your Secretary/Treasurer, I hope to keep you informed of the decisions of your officers and directors as they pertain to your organization.

A committee has been named to rework the by-laws of the INA and put them into a readable, workable format. A copy of this statement of the by-laws will be included in The Iowa Collector at a later date. In this way each member will have a copy of the by-laws.

Also, a committee was formed to begin work on a manual which will be used by any club hosting an INA show in the future. This will list the requirements and expectations of the organization for any state show.

If any of you have, or know the location of, any INA display cases or other equipment, please contact either your new president, Jim Hamling, or myself. An attempt is being made to gather all cases, etc., to then be held in storage for use at any show.

It is never too early to begin thinking about putting together a display for a future coin show. Remember, you needn't display coins or numismatic materials of great value in order to have an interesting exhibit. The method of display and the information included have a great deal to do with a winning exhibit. Let's try to have as many exhibitors as we do dealers at the next INA show!

A challenge is being offered. Let's see if during the next year we can double the membership of INA. Sound like the Impossible Dream? Well, perhaps, but remember, if each member would sign up only one new member during this year, the dream would become reality.

You will find a listing of the names and addresses of your new officers and directors in this issue of The Iowa Collector. Please notice that there is now a P.O. Box address for INA.

P.O. Box 65356
West Des Moines, Iowa 50265

So, send those applications for new membership now! Also, remember, if you have not paid your dues for the 1982-1983 year, they are now due.

Your new INA Sec./Treas.

FOREST CITY HAS 24TH SHOW

The 24th annual coin show of the Forest City Coin Club was moved up to February 12 and 13 this year. Held at the Civic Auditorium in Forest City, the show features many bourse tables with guns, baseball cards, coins, stamps, crafts, comic books, antiques and other collectibles.

There are also door prizes.

General chairman is Forest Buffington, 535 Sunset Drive, Forest City, Iowa 50436; Bourse chairman is Harry Peters, Rte. 2, Kanawha, Iowa 50447; while exhibit chairman is Eugene Morris, Box 467, Forest City.

A feature at this show is the dinner held on Saturday evening (Dutch Treat) for the dealers, exhibitors, club members and others.

20TH MID-IOWA COIN-A-RAMA

The Ames Coin Club is again host to the big annual coin and stamp show, held this year on February 26-27 at the Starlight Motel. Hours are from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

Show chairman is Art Nelson, 619 E. 13th Street, Ames, Iowa 50010. Walter Schuette is bourse chairman. Write him at Walt's Coin Shop, 309 Main St., Ames, Iowa 50010.

PRESENTATION OF CHECKS always bring out the smiles — and this case was no exception. The occasion was the handing over of the money and of the responsibility of operating the Okoboji coin show each summer.

Checks representing the money left in the treasury after three years of operation of the show, is being divided between the new Okoboji Club and the Higgins Museum.

It will be recalled that the Clarion Coin club, with Mr. Watts as the motivating force, established the Okoboji Show as an event on the fourth week-end in August, and made it a combination educational, bourse and fun week-end. The educational seminars are held at Higgins Museum and the entire Okoboji area is available for fun and vacation activities.

After three years of sponsoring the show from a distance, the Clarion Coin club announces itself as happy to turn the show over to the recently organized Okoboji club, and to look forward to just coming to the show to learn and for fun.

HALF DOLLARS POPULAR WINNERS AT STATE INA SHOW

Half dollars were popular with both of the major award winners at the INA show last October. Jim Erlenborn of Peru, Illinois, won the Best of Show trophy for his exhibit of types of U.S. half dollars.

The Lowell Owen Memorial Award for Juniors went to Clint Korver of Charles City for his display of Franklin halves.

Other exhibitors at the show were: Paul Lyons of Burlington, Gene Bright of Cedar Falls, W.B. Houser of Clarion, Rick Hickman of Des Moines and Ken Birger of Cedar Rapids.

Gary L. Lyon of West Des Moines was the 1982 INA Exhibit chairman.

Jim Erlenborn, Peru, Illinois, winner of the Best of Show trophy at the INA state show, and the trophy for the best exhibit of U.S. Coins, has been a member of the INA for four years. His type set of United States half dollars, explained the why, when and where of the coins. The numismatic information was strikingly displayed by using photo engraving on satin finish chrome.

Clint Korver, Charles City, was winner of the Lowell Owen Memorial Award for Juniors at the state INA show. His exhibit featured Franklin halves. Earlier in the year Clint had exhibited at the CSNS show in Cedar Rapids (winning first place in the junior division) and at the ANA show in Boston.

a word or two from BILL

This issue appears as tulips and spring coin shows are both just around the proverbial corner. If some say they missed the winter issue, we can only say that matters got mightily involved. Also the timing of this issue is a bit better than it has been in some years.

-o-

A recent note from our former co-editor, Greg Paulsen, says, "finals put a real strain on my time." Am sure Greg is learning that college is more demanding of his hours than he thought it would be. In any event, we are sure that Iowa numismatists will hear again from Greg when his college days are over.

-o-

We are sure each INA member who attended the annual show at Adventureland remembers the pledge for each to sign-up one new member. At that rate our membership will be doubled by the time of the next annual show to be held in Cedar Rapids this September or October.

-o-

Mail has been returned from the Davenport Coin Club, 1646 West 42nd, Davenport, IA 52806, marked "UNKNOWN". We for one think the Club has either moved to another address or a substitute carrier was on the job that one day. If there is a correction, kindly advise.

-o-

Club presidents should meet with the INA directors at least once a year for a joint meeting. Perhaps such a meeting could be held at the mid year meeting in Cedar Rapids. Also meetings could be held any time with the directors in each area as a means of exchanging ideas and coordinating plans between the state association and local clubs.

-o-

As a result of the election last fall, the number of state directors has been increased from 11 to 15. Hopefully more hands can get more done. Certainly more heads will come up with more ideas to share at the two annual meetings.

Keep on Collecting. . .

Bill

The annual Christmas meeting of the members of the Webster City Coin club on December 11, set a new record in attendance — 99 people. Members and their spouses were guests at the catered chicken and ham dinner. The food was at no expense to members or their guests.

Each member also won a door prize. Given were a turkey, a ham, 1980 proof sets, 1968 proof sets, Washington commemoratives, black books and other items.

Officers were elected: Charles R. Larson, president for the third year; Larry Gilbert, vice president; Clorise Coghlan, treasurer; and Earl Rinehardt, recording secretary.

Membership of the club has grown from a low in the 20's to a present membership of around 55. Among items on the March auction will be 40 proof sets, uncirculated 1883-CC dollars, and more.

THREE DAY CEDAR RAPIDS SHOW AT SHERATON INN MARCH 4-5-6

For further information, write Bob Douglas, Box 123, Hiawatha, Iowa 52233.

RIVER CITY COIN CLUB ANNUAL SHOW ON APRIL 9-10

The annual coin show of the River City Coin Club will be held in Mason City April 9 and 10 at the Knights of Columbus hall on Highway 18 west.

There will be 26 bourse tables available, and everyone is encouraged to bring an exhibit.

Anyone interested in more information about the show, should contact Clint or Bonnie Korver at 203 North Main, Charles City, Iowa 50616, or call 515-228-7401 days or 515-228-2869 evenings.

"Bie" describes a die error on the Lincoln cent which occasionally shows a bit of metal between the B and E of "Liberty" and appears as an extra I in the spelling. This is caused by a break in the die.

Deadline for Next Issue will be May 1, 1983

All news and advertising matter should be sent to Bill Houser, 104 Central Ave. E., Clarion, Iowa 50525. Phone 515-532-3276 daytimes.
